Recovery of taxes

694. SHRI JANARDHANA POOJARY: Will the Minister of FINANCE AND COMPANY AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Income Tax Department is unable to recover tax from a large number of defaulters;

(b) if so, the total amount to be recovered together with the number of defaulters and the reasons therefor;

(c) the I.T. arrears from top 20 industrial houses, film stars and other professionals; and

(d) the measures proposed to be taken by Government to recover the dues and the time target set for the purpose?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE AND COMPANY AFFAIRS (SHRI GINGEE N. RAMACHANDRAN): (a) and (b) Rs. 62,775.19 crores is outstanding as Income Tax and Corporation Tax as on 31.12.2002. This demand includes current demand as well as arrear demand. The demand is in various stages of process, including appeal. Whether an assessee having outstanding demand is a defaulter or not would depend on a number of factors that may vary from time to time. The details of all defaulters are not Centrally monitored by the Income Tax Department and the efforts required to collect information thereof from offices located all over the country will not be commensurate with the results sought to be achieved.

(c) The Income Tax Department does not maintain separate details of Income Tax arrears on the basis of categories such as industrial houses, film stars, professionals, etc.

(d) Recovery of taxes is a continuous process involving various statutory procedures. Coercive steps, like attachment of banks accounts, properties and other assets etc. are taken for collection of outstanding demand. Action taken by the Government to recover these dues would depend on the facts of each case.
